Your yearly SPC update has arrived: Austria-Codex Fachinformation 2020!

The Austria-Codex Fachinformation is a valuable clinical resource for healthcare professionals concerned with the use of medicinal products in Austria. This reference tool in German allows practitioners to compare medicines and make informed prescription and dispensing decisions. The summaries of product characteristics for human and veterinary medicinal products are complemented by corresponding abbreviated texts (e.g. posology, contraindications), compositions (active ingredients, excipients), marketing authorisation holders, classifications (e.g. WHO ATC), interaction checks and other functions.

AUSTRIA-CODEX FACHINFORMATION 2020
